

Gates of the mind

*"No sane man of intelligence will plead for a religion on the grounds that it is better than nothing.
It is not better than nothing if it is not true.
Truth is better than anything or all things."
--Ambrose Bierce, 1842-1914*

Freedom fighters today, the brave folk who risk their lives and fortunes for the survival of their race and culture, spend much of their time and energy defining and describing "the enemy." Quite frankly, we are our own worst enemy. As a species, as a race, we are woefully inadequate to repel the power of propaganda and manipulation of the masses. We are a race who invites and enables our own extinction.

The longer one is in the White survival mindset, the more evident it becomes that for the vast, overwhelming majority of people their ideas of reality are artificial constructs. It appears that the creation of artificial realities is an exact science which was perfected by the world's rulers thousands of years ago.

There are many modern and self-evident methods of mind control and reality creation of which most of us are already aware. We all know the power of the electronic toilet called 'television.' Reality for most Americans and for hundreds of millions of others around the world springs from this Hollywood sewage. A prime example of TV control can be seen in America's prisons. Despite the fact that most convictions in Federal courts are obtained with perjured testimony and false evidence, and even though the inmates know it, and even though they know the media is complicit in covering up or justifying unconstitutional trials, they still persist in parroting or discussing the television's demonization of alleged malefactors. There is an even better example of how far removed from reality our folk have become. I refer to the spectacle of so-called pro-wrestling. Millions of Americans sit glued to their seats in front of the idiot box, as the transparent charade of bluster, braggadocio, garish costumes and bad acting runs its course. The same could be said for all TV sports, game shows and soap operas, the megabucks entertainment industry.

During the weeks previous to the so-called Gulf War (better named "Operation Desert Turkey Shoot"), I watched in disbelief as the media whipped the American people into a killing frenzy within just thirty days. Where once upon a time heroism was characterized by the last stand of a heroic few against insurmountable odds, now it is considered heroic to kill hundreds of thousands with push-button missiles or with monster bombs, dropped with impunity and perfect safety from 8 or 10 miles in the air. Butchery of the helpless and the innocent is now rewarded with medals for heroism. The mass hysteria that once worked so well in public gatherings like church and the Colosseum is now spread to billions via the electronic media. And mass hysteria is real. Recently I saw a nostalgic film clip that showed young girls at the Ed Sullivan Show during the famous Elvis episode. The girls were in a trance state as complete as could be induced by a master hypnotist.

Reality for the masses is, also, a reflection of appearance as opposed to substance. I remember taking a poll among nearly a hundred young women after the Nixon-Kennedy debates prior to the presidential election of 1960. Almost every single woman who had watched the debate declared she would vote for Kennedy. When asked why, they gushed, "Because he is so good looking!" So much for the idiotic idea of democracy, and votes, and self-rule by the unqualified. As an aside, those who listened to the debate on the radio usually opted for Nixon.

There are endless examples of the insanity that pass as reality among our folk. Those of us in the struggle for the 14 Words already know the final war will be between relatively small numbers at each end of the spectrum, while the masses watch, and wait, to see who will prevail and thus be the next to tell them what to think and what to believe.

Before the advent of television and other modern methods of mind-control the world's rulers relied largely on religion to control the masses. We call to mind the maxim:

When the gates of the mind are opened to the first irrational premise, then all barriers to a flood of insanity are broken. This is a fundamental secret of priestcraft. That is why the priestcrafter intones the never-ending litany of "believe-believe-believe" and "have faith-faith-faith!" The preacher will not tell his followers to go out and explore all religions, all philosophies, all science disciplines and then make a considered judgment.

The ancient mystery schools of our folk, whence sprang Wotanism, never taught "belief." In fact, the Adepts would have been horrified! They taught the aspiring initiate how to study nature in meticulous detail, and it was from such observation that they postulated an intelligence and motive force in the universe. However, the three major religions of Judaism, Christianity and Islam, which allegedly sprang from a common root, are all predicated on the irrationality of "belief," as opposed to "reason." As we shall see, opening the gates of the mind to an absurd premise is the secret of power for all three religions as they exist today.

The three most absurd supernatural tales that are presented as factual history, one from each religion, will illustrate the point. Moslems are told that Mohammed rose to heaven while still alive, as he stood on a rock which is now enshrined within a mosque called the Dome of the Rock. The Christians demand literal belief that the motive force of the entire universe turned itself into a mortal man, in order to have itself killed by mortal men, in order to keep itself from killing mortal men in the eternal torment of hell. The Jews are taught that the earth stopped spinning so there would be extra sunlight for their alleged ancestors to slaughter their enemies. Of course, they are not told that if the earth stopped spinning, the oceans would come out of their boundaries in a wall of water miles deep and traveling 1,000 mph, which would obliterate the earth's land masses.

If the concept of "God" can be understood within the limitations of human perspective, the most precise grasp would be defined by the eternal Laws of Nature. But Christians are required to abandon all reason and "believe" in the "immaculate conception." But is there a Christian alive who would rejoice to learn that his virgin daughter were pregnant? Truly, sane men understand that Nature is unforgivingly true!

The point is, if the pastor can convince his sheep that such absurdities are possible, then their minds are gone and he can lead them marching lockstep, like lemmings, to enslavement and extinction. If the people will swallow tales this wild and impossible, then selling religious wars, inquisitions and even racial suicide are a piece of cake.

It appears that the masses claiming to be members of any of these three religions are equally duped by their priestcraft leaders. This does not change the fact that incredibly wealthy Internationalists rule the world today, or that they have sentenced the White race to death. A fact that will become self-evident is that original Old Testament writings formed a separatist religion which can be still deduced, despite all the centuries in custody of the enemy. A separatist religion is good, no matter who claims to be its founders or descendants. Islam was formed by Adepts in response to the evil and tyranny of the Roman Church; its founders had good intentions. Of the three, only Christianity was constructed from the beginning as a tool for tyrants. The real murderer of the White race is Christianity. It was formed to unite the many races, nations and cultures of the cruel and degenerate Roman Empire. As such, its aim was always genocide for our folk throughout Europe. To use the Christians' own words, "By their fruits you shall know them." Christianity brought torture, murder, war, inquisitions, insanity, misery, slavery, superstition, ignorance and the Dark Ages. Wotan was, is and always shall be the true God of the Aryan people. Wotan has sustained us in the past and will be our strength and victory in the future.

*"It remains true: the fairy tale of Christ is the reason that the world is able to go forward another ten meters without anyone coming to his senses;
it takes as much strength of knowledge,
understanding and wisdom to defend it as to attack it."
--Goethe, 1788 CE*
